Heritage And Culture

ANCIENT GRANDEUR. ENDURING PRIDE

Steeped in the vibrant history of a proud civilization which dates as far back as 3000 years, Sri Lanka is a land where the past lives on, not only in the heartbeat of her smiling people, but also in the traditions of an ancient culture reflective of the ever present influence of a by-gone era.

The spirit and essence of ancient Sri Lanka is etched in the many magnificent monuments that stand testimony to the splendor and vitality of several historic dynasties of which Anuradhapura and Polonnaruwa stand foremost. Home to an astounding eight UNESCO world heritage sites, including the wondrous rock fortress of Sigiriya, the resplendent past of this island nation endures, embellished further by the remnants of Portuguese, Dutch and British colonial rule that provides an insightful glimpse into events and influences integral to the moulding of modern Sri Lanka. Heralded as the No.1 tourist destination by the New York Times and many other prestigious publications, Sri Lanka is a trove of ancient grandeur and it is the enduring pride of its people.

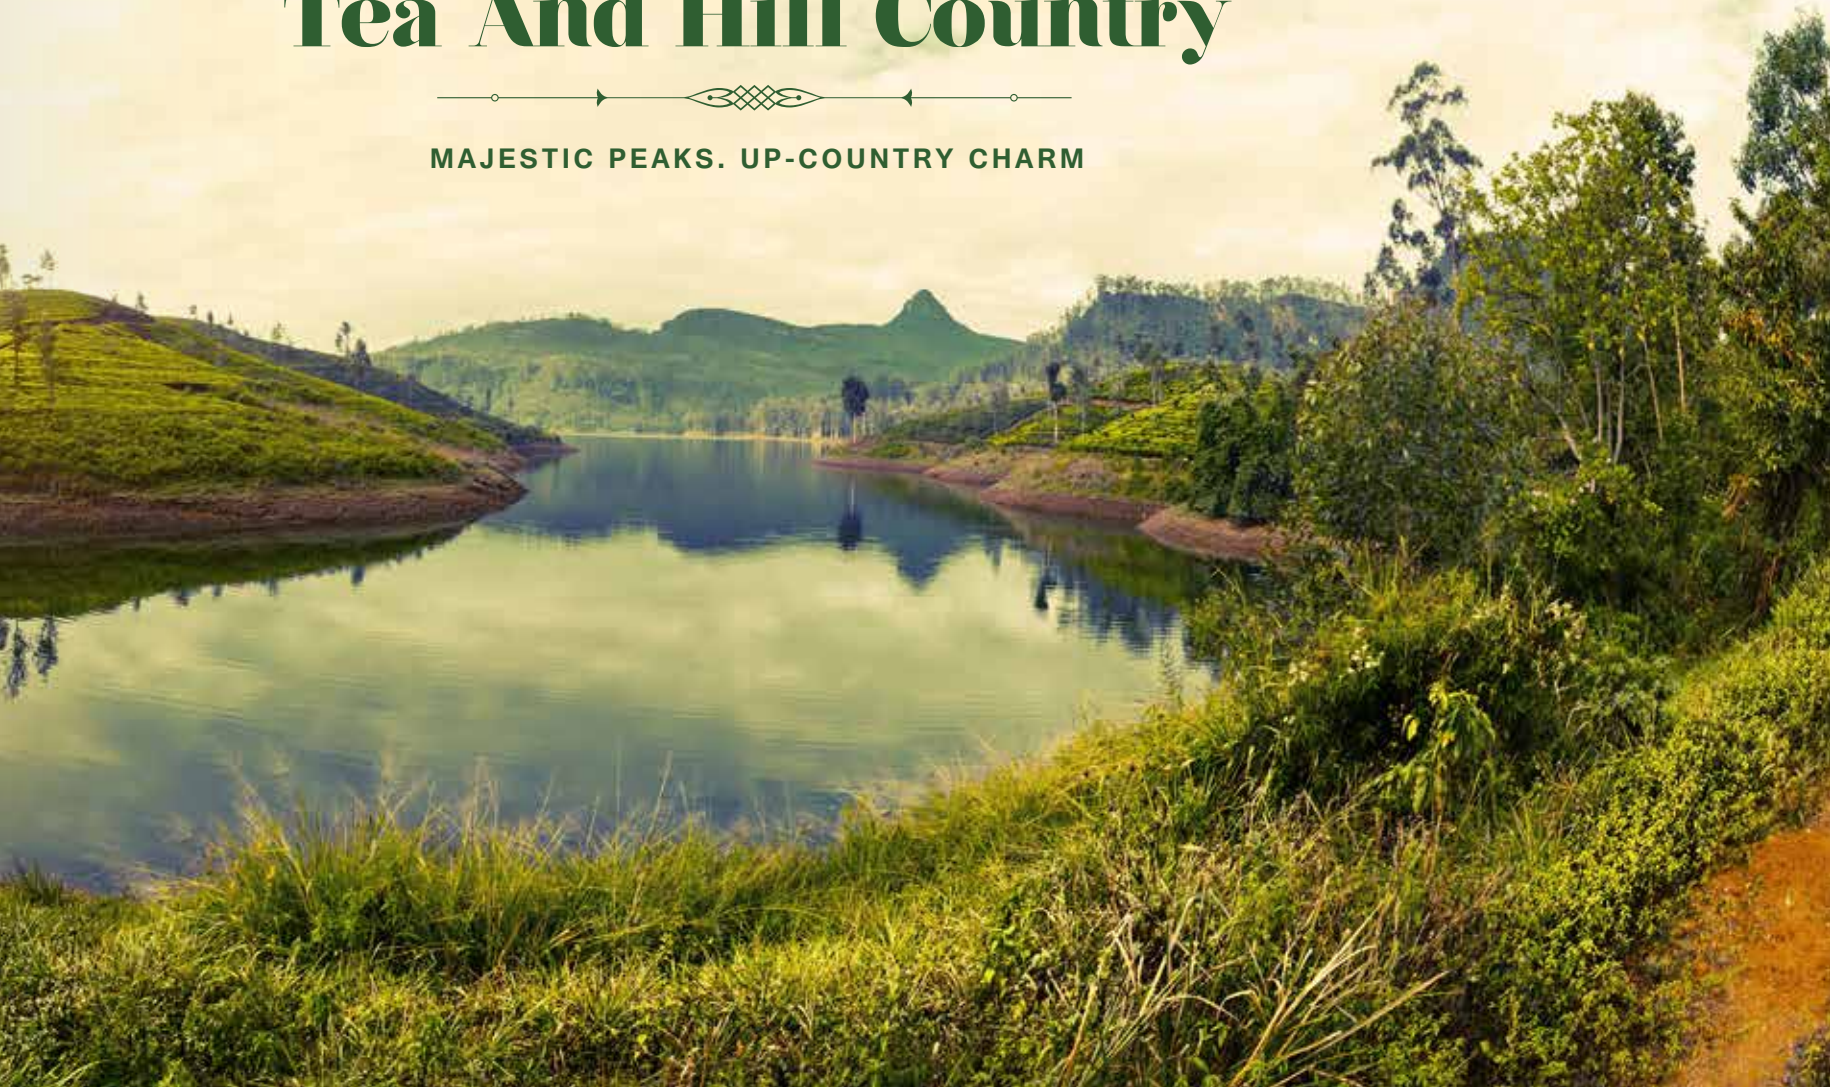

Jetwing will introduce to you all this with pride in our own way and with our own brand of hospitality. Giving you authentic experiences that gently introduces you to Sri Lanka and its history, we will go the extra mile in arranging local experiences, private visits and activities that will allow you to learn and truly immerse yourself in the country, its history and heritage.

Tea And Hill Country

MAJESTIC PEAKS. UP-COUNTRY CHARM

A welcome escape from the sweltering coastline, Sri Lanka's breathtaking hill country provides a refreshing respite beyond the beach. An idyll of lush mountainous terrain blanketed in green, the densely forested landscape sparkles emerald amidst misty peaks evoking a sense of picturesque drama accentuated by cascading waterfalls and jagged plateaus. The scenic beauty of this region is enhanced further by expanses of tea plantations adorned with the bustling hue of sari clad tea pluckers. So whether exploring the cultural wealth of the last Sinhalese stronghold of Kandy or following the butterfly trail to a perfect sunrise at Adam's Peak, basking in the heart-stopping beauty of one of Sri Lanka's most famous views at World's End or simply enjoying the aroma of a freshly brewed cup of Ceylon tea on the verandah of a charming bungalow in Nuwara Eliya, while delighting in a scenic view; the hill country never disappoints.

Join Jetwing in an expedition to the Hill Country with panoramic mountain vistas of rolling green hills carpeted with tea. We will arrange visits to tea factories to see how the local blend is produced, morning walking the tea experiences to speak with the local tea pluckers and see what a typical work day is like for them, to exquisite tea tasting experiences and museum visits and expert guides to impart to you the history of Ceylon tea, how it was introduced to Ceylon by the early pioneers during colonial times etc.

The background is a dense forest with green foliage and tree branches. A large tree trunk is visible on the left side of the frame.

Wildlife

EXOTIC MARVELS, NATURAL WONDERS

A testament to the size defying diversity in geographic and climatic conditions Sri Lanka has to offer, is the thriving abundance of endemic flora and fauna that is compacted into this impressive tropical haven. Nature lovers and wildlife enthusiasts can delight in many magnificent sights including roaming herds of majestic Asian elephants at Yala and schools of reclusive blue whales off both the Southern and Eastern coasts of the island.

Let Jetwing introduce you to the “Elephant Gathering”, in minnerriya where you can see hundreds of wild elephants in families converge majestically on the the minnerriya tank during the dry period due to lack of water or observe “The Crossing” – where you can see elephants actually swimming across the Gal Oya tank. This and many more marvels are yours to experience the Jetwing way.

We will help you experience wildlife like never before. From observing the Asian elephant, the largest land based mammal in one of the many national parks to observing the Blue whale, the largest water based mammal out in the deep ocean – all in just a single day and have you back at your hotel in time for an early dinner and spa!

The enchanting charm that has contributed to making Sri Lanka so distinctive stems directly from the vibrant effervescence of her courageously resilient, always smiling people, and the awe-inspiring majesty and diversity of her natural beauty. In a predominantly rural country, most often, these two vital entities are intertwined, the fate of one determining the fate of the other.

A multi ethnic, multi religious heritage is woven into the tapestry of Sri Lankan culture. You will see Hindu temples, Buddhist monks and temples, mosques and churches each spread right throughout the island and some more focused in different regions giving you a glimpse into Sri Lanka and its people who are religious and traditional in their beliefs.

Visit the rural areas of Sri Lanka, meet people in their villages and homes and observe their beliefs and lifestyles giving you an opportunity to truly reflect and immerse yourself in the local lifestyle and culture and come away inspired!

Have lunch next to a paddy field in a rural village with the locals and understand the true Sri Lankan smiles, warmth and genuine hospitality we are famed for and let Jetwing a true Sri Lankan original and a hundred percent Sri Lankan family owned company ourselves guide your way and help you discover.
